NIC26

Zero Trust in mind

Every agent interaction follows Zero Trust principles to minimize risk and protect resources.

01

Zero standing permissions

Agents receive no permission "by default". Every access must be explicitly granted.

02

Time-bound

Agent Identities have expiry timer. When it goes to zero, Identity is disabled.

All access is granted for a defined duration, ensuring no indefinite permissions remain.

03

Restricted high-privilege access

Some high-privilege access is blocked by the platform. Cannot be granted in any way. For example, Users.ReadWrite.All.

04

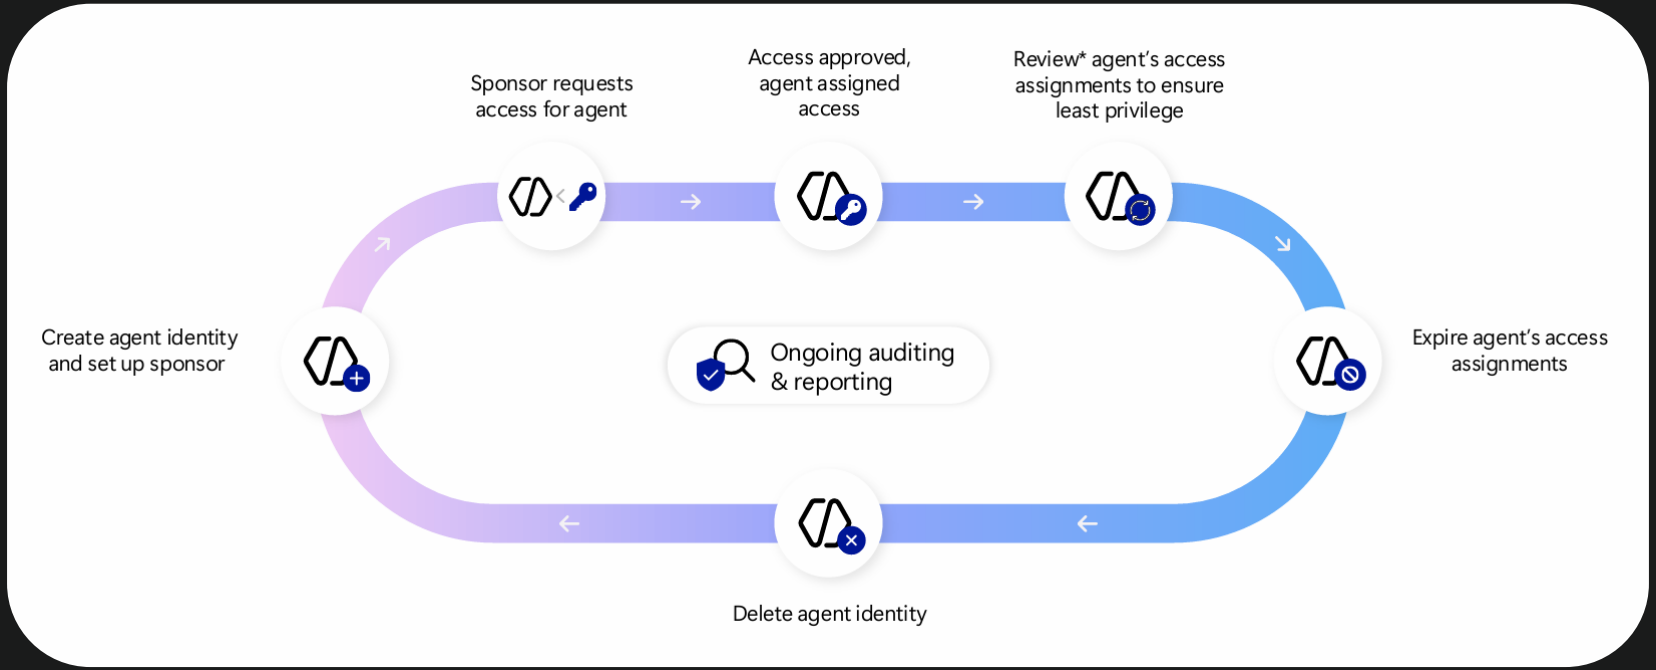

Forced accountability

Sponsor is mandatory property* of an Agent Identity
